

Alabama Taxidermist Association

The Alabama Taxidermy Association's 50th Annual Convention promises to be a landmark event for enthusiasts and professionals alike, celebrating half a century of craftsmanship and dedication to the art of taxidermy. Scheduled to take place in the heart of Alabama, this convention will showcase a variety of exhibits, from intricately mounted wildlife to demonstrations on the latest techniques in the field. Attendees can look forward to engaging workshops led by seasoned experts, offering insights into both traditional methods and innovative practices. Additionally, the convention will serve as a networking hub, bringing together a diverse community of artists, hobbyists, and suppliers, fostering collaboration and the exchange of knowledge. Special events, including competitions and award ceremonies, will highlight exceptional talent and craftsmanship. Whether you're a seasoned taxidermist or an intrigued newcomer, the 50th Annual Convention offers a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in the fascinating world of taxidermy.
